

Newport Public School and Class Parent Emails

The purpose of this form of communication is to communicate necessary organizational information, promote school events, arrange school and class activities, arrange meetings and inform parents of relevant, school related news and information.

Facebook Rules of Engagement

In joining our community on Facebook, Newport Public School follows the Department of Education Code of Conduct and Facebook's Community Standards.

Students

Facebook Terms and Conditions state no one under the age of 13 years should have a Facebook profile. Therefore, any comments or page fans from primary students on the Newport Public School page will be removed and, if warranted, users will be reported.

Tagging or naming student photos

For privacy and protection, please do not tag photos of children, and please do not name them in your comments. Tagging of parents or friends within the comment box is permitted with the understanding that all other rules of engagement are followed.

Comments

Newport Public School encourages interaction from participants with the understanding that the school does not endorse comments or wall postings made by visitors to the page.

We ask that visitors making comments on the page show respect for other users by ensuring discussions remain courteous. Personal attacks, trolling or spam will not be tolerated.

We reserve the right to remove comments that do not adhere to the rules of engagement of the page and Facebook's community standards including comments that:

- are deemed racist, sexist, abusive, profane, defaming, violent, obscene, spam
- advocate illegal activity
- are wildly off-topic
- libel, incite, threaten or make personal character attacks on Newport Public School, the students, employees, guests or other individuals.

We reserve the right to remove any participant that does not adhere to the rules of engagement or Facebook's Community Standards.

Remember, your name and photo will be seen next to your comment, visible to all visitors to the page.

We will not permit messages selling products or promoting commercial, political or other ventures.

As we would all expect in any relationship, all communications should be polite and respectful.

If you have an issue or concern to raise with the school, please don't hesitate to get in contact with us, through either your child's teacher, the grade coordinator or the school office who will be able to assist with your inquiry.
